

Mark Fairchilds

502 W47th St, Apt 1E
New York, NY 10036

mark.fairchilds@gmail.com
347-527-0549

Education

---

Rochester Institute of Technology, Rochester, NY
School of Photographic Arts & Sciences
Biomedical Photographic Illustration, Liberal Arts Concentration in International Relations
BS Expected: November 2009
Cumulative GPA: 3.75 / 4.0
1.5 years of Mechanical Engineering education

Skill Set

---

Photography:

Familiar with 35mm, medium format, 4x5, tethered instrument, and digital SLR cameras
Versed in analog and digital color and B&W workflow, color management, and printing
Experienced in analog to digital conversion and formatting for the internet
Practiced in location, studio, scientific, and microscope photography as well as videography

Technology:

Advanced computer knowledge on Mac and Windows platforms
Working knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite 3&4 (Ps, Dw, ID, FI)
Practiced in Video Editing using Final Cut Pro and delivery of video via DVD and web
Experience doing web publishing, handcoding HTML, and some light Flash development
Experience with Microsoft Office on Mac OS and Windows
Working knowledge of CAD software, Trained on Pro Engineer, Familiar with Solidworks

Work Experience

---

Information Technology Support Representative, 2005–Present

Rochester Institute of Technology, ITS, Rochester, NY
MkM Communications, New York, NY

Responsible for troubleshooting and solving software issues, diagnosing and replacing faulty hardware, backup and migration between systems, diagnosis of client network issues, making purchasing recommendations, one-to-one training

Summer Intern

Canfield Scientific, Inc. , Fairfield, NJ - 2009

Responsible for experimental system assembly, some flash development, CAD drafting, automation, photography of test subjects, custom hardware evaluation

Ilan Rubin Photo Studio, New York, NY - 2008

Responsible for running errands, maintaining office supplies, shipping & receiving, some scanning